

Old & New members of Pax Christi

And all who are concerned about Peace and War in our Time are warmly invited to

A special evening

to celebrate 40 years of Pax Christi Australia
&
reflect on the challenges ahead

TUESDAY 16 SEPTEMBER

6.00 pm – 9.00 pm

Kildara Centre, rear 39 Stanhope Street, Malvern

A unique opportunity to:

- ❖ meet existing members and friends of Pax Christi
- ❖ learn more of Pax Christi's history in Australia and internationally and its future plans
- ❖ engage with distinguished panellists in a conversation on the prospects for peace and war in our time
- ❖ enjoy a convivial evening

Programme

- 6.00 Refreshments
- 6.30 Introductions
- 6.40 40 Years in Retrospect followed by Questions & Discussion
- 7.05 Ideas and Plans for the Future followed by Questions & Discussion
- 7.30 The Challenges Ahead: Distinguished Australians in Conversation
on the issues of peace and war in our time, and the big challenges facing Australia

Rev Merrill Kitchen OAM, BAppSc, DTheol, TheolM Fellow of the Melbourne College of Divinity, formerly Dean of the Evangelical Theological Association and Principal of the Churches of Christ Theological College in Melbourne.

Rev. Brian V. Johnstone, CSSR, STD Emeritus Professor of Moral Theology/Ethics; has taught on peace and war at the Pontifical Gregorian University & Catholic University of America.

Assoc Prof Tilman Ruff, Nossal Institute for Global Health; National President of Medical Association for the Prevention of War and Chair of the International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons (ICAN).

Moderated by Emeritus Prof Joseph Camilleri OAM

- 8.55 Closing remarks