

Experience some funny moments, dramatic moments, in another culture . . .

Beautifully nuanced, slyly political, and frequently very funny . . . offers a generous, bittersweet portrait of pinpoint specificity and universal appeal – Sight and Sound

Read on: Scooping awards at festivals around the globe, including real-life father and son Mohammad and Saleh Bakri who jointly won the Dubai International Film Festival's Best Actor Award . . . AnneMarie Jacir's third film focuses on Palestinians living within Israel's borders, gently teasing out the complex politics at play.

Wajib - The Wedding Invitation

Duration 96 minutes; Rating M; Arabic with English subtitles

*You and your friends are warmly invited – why not organize a group?
to join us at Pax Christi's first fundraiser for 2018*

Nova Cinema 380 Lygon St Carlton

Sunday October 14, 4:30p.m.

Cost $18 per person

Car park entrance Drummond St – keep movie tickets for a discount if over $30 spent in Lygon Court including film tickets. Two cinemas on ground floor, others (plus bar) on level 1. Lift from car park. Wheel chair access.

Order Form

Name and address

Tel : Email No of tickets Amount enclosed

Send to Pax Christi Vic PO Box 31 Carlton Sth 3053 or email camrita44@gmail.com or phone 9379 3889
or by direct deposit to Pax Christi Vic (CBA) BSB 063161 Acc 00900935