Come & enjoy Cath Connelly & Greg Hunt in concert
Presenting their latest album for “Liminality”

Cath Connelly and Greg Hunt call themselves Liminality - the threshold space where our known experience merges with the enigmatic. True to their Celtic roots, Cath and Greg combine Celtic harp, violin and mandola in a stunning collaboration that is more than the sum of their parts. The instruments fuse beautifully in a presentation of music on the Celtic threshold.
