

What are women theologians saying in times of ecological crisis?

An extended time to explore the wisdom of four vital women, each of whom offers a lens into a hope-filled way for our future

Monday, 14 September 10.00am – 2.30pm

Simple Lunch provided

Presenter: Anne Boyd csb

Venue: Brigid's Well, Kildara Centre

Rear 39 Stanhope Street, Malvern

Cost: Suggested donation $15

Elizabeth Johnson is professor of theology at the Catholic University of America. She is a prolific writer and pioneer of feminist theology. This session will focus on her small publication Women, Earth and Creator Spirit.

Sally MacFague (left) is theologian in residence at the Lutheran Vancouver School of Theology. Amongst her many writings on this topic is A New Climate for Theology: God, the World and Climate Change.

Judy Cannato (right) a wife and mother is a retreat facilitator and spiritual director and is associated with River's Edge in Ohio. Her most recent publication is Radical Amazement: Contemplative Lessons on Black Holes, Supernovas and Other Wonders of the Universe

Barbara Fiand (left) is a distinguished author and teacher with a strong background in feminist theology and has written recently on Awe-filled Wonder with the intent of deepening our understanding of the recent scientific discoveries on our God-quest.

Anne Boyd is a Brigidine Sister with a long history of involvement in Catholic Education at primary, secondary and tertiary levels. In recent years she has fulfilled a growing desire to explore the inter-relationship between ecology and spirituality. She is currently the co-ordinator of the EarthSong Project, sponsored by seven Religious Orders in Victoria.

RSVP BY 9 SEPT ESSENTIAL
CONTACT KILDARA CENTRE: 95097906
Email: kildara@netspace.net.au