

You are warmly invited to

A special evening

To discuss one of the defining issues of our time
Terrorism & the 'war on terror'
What they mean for Australia

Tuesday 19 May

6.00 pm – 9.00 pm

Kildara Centre, rear 39 Stanhope Street, Malvern

A unique opportunity to:

- ❖ engage with distinguished panellists in a thoughtful and constructive conversation
- ❖ enjoy a convivial evening
- ❖ meet members and friends of Pax Christi
- ❖ learn more of Pax Christi's program and future plans

Programme

6.00 Refreshments

6.30 Introductions

6.45 A Moderated Conversation engaging three outstanding speakers :

Robert Stary Principal of the firm Robert Stary Lawyers, 30 years' experience as Criminal Defence Lawyer, past President of the Criminal Defence Lawyers Association; has represented Jack Thomas in terrorism trial in Supreme Court of Victoria; 13 Muslims charged with terrorist crimes in the Supreme Court of Victoria; G20 protestors; anti-logging protestors, and trade unionists.

Tasneem Chopra Curator, cross-cultural consultant, author and prominent activist; has a passion for addressing social justice issues particularly as these issues impact upon the disadvantaged and minorities.; delivers acclaimed workshops on diversity, identity and racism to varied audiences from Supreme Court judges to kindergarten teachers.

Emeritus Professor Joseph Camilleri OAM One of Australia's leading scholars and commentators on international relations; founding director of the Centre for Dialogue at La Trobe University; Managing Director of new consultancy Alexandria Agenda, offering services in the areas of sustainability, diversity and education; author of more than 25 books.

8.30 Implications for the peace movement in Australia and Pax Christi's future plans.